Service that Serves

Living to Serve, for many this is their favorite line of the FFA Motto. Join teachers; Beth Zuilhof, Jessica Chandler, Kelley Foreman, and Erin Stutts who successfully serve their school and community with various creative service projects for ideas to take back to your chapter and community. Panelists will not only share service activity ideas but also discuss and answer questions on topics including but not limited to: how to find service projects that serve the community you are in, finding time to implement activities, funding resources, and how to plan activities efficiently.

- Where to find ideas
 - Your students- they are in the community
 - Local churches or other service organizations you community may have
 - Join up with other large events your community may have
 - Mimic service activities that work already
- Funding aid
 - Budget $ amount from fundraiser that goes towards service projects
 - Get sponsor for specific service event if the cost is high
 - Collections and list out what is needed -potluck but for supplies
 - Donation items as entry to meeting
 - A fun money collecting competition like “kiss the pig”
- Time to add to POA
 - Split the activities between teachers
 - Stack on top of FFA meeting or event - have a item on agenda where students work on or complete a service project
 - Tie to lessons in the classroom
- Idea Share
 - Week of Service - daily service activities
 - City/ School clean ups
 - Kids against hunger
 - Pennates of appreciation (in class activity)
 - Service Breakfasts
 - Soul Hope
