

ATAT February Teacher Talk- February 29th, 2024

Link to recorded February's ag teacher talk

Farming is Risky Business; A Risk Management Lesson Resource

Farming is Risky Business (FRB) is an Agriculture & Risk Management Education Resource. FRB is an Interactive simulation between teachers and students that will fully engage students to learn in real-time. Farming is Risky Business is provided to all schools in the US and funded in partnership by USDA, Risk Management Agency and completely free of charge to teachers to use in their classrooms.

How to set up your FREE account

Go to <https://frbweb.com/>

Home

Demo

How it Works

Help

Contact

Students

Instructors

Students

Enter Workshop Code

I Don't Have A Workshop Code

Instructors

1st time users register for your free account

1st time user you will need to create your free account. Allow 24 hours to be approved. Once approved you can log into your Account to set up your courses.

It's easy to register for an instructor account at FRBWeb.com.

Instructor Registration

It's easy to sign up for the Farming is Risky Business learning platform at FRBWeb.com.

It's easy to sign up for the Farming is Risky Business learning platform at FRBWeb.com. We'll follow up via email with your approval and further instructions. Please allow up to 24 hours for your approval to be processed.

More courses and risk management simulation workshops (Currently there are Cows and Wheat and Nursery) are being developed so this resource will continue to grow!

Contact

John Magus- jmangus@casnow.com